

Introducing
our speakers

UK Computing Summit 2025: Navigating change (surviving and beyond)

Session: Staff recruitment & retention: HE academics & wider industry

Jessica Stevenson

Principal

UTC Sheffield Olympic Legacy Park

Find Jessica on LinkedIn here

Jessica Stevenson has been Principal of UTC Sheffield Olympic Legacy Park since January 2020. The UTC specialises in Computing , Health and Sport education for 13-19-year-olds. Previously, she held the role of Director of Inclusion at Mercia Learning Trust in Sheffield, where she demonstrated a strong commitment to fostering inclusive and impactful educational practices. She has more than 20 years' experience as a teacher and leader and is passionate about employer led learning. Jessica holds two master's degrees: one in Fine Art and another in Educational Leadership and Management. This combination of artistic and leadership expertise reflects her innovative approach to education. With extensive experience in delivering high-quality provision, Jessica is recognised as a well-respected education leader within Sheffield. She is a passionate advocate for ensuring access to excellent education for all students, empowering young people to achieve their full potential. Under Jessica's leadership, UTC Sheffield Olympic Legacy Park has become the lead UTC for the National Digital Health project, positioning it at the forefront of educational innovation in this critical sector.